MRS. SMITH'S OPINIONS.

The other day I made a call,
As ladies sometimes do,
To hear the news my friends could tell,
And tell them what I knew.
And as we sat in social chat
O'er steaming cups of tea,
"I don't know what we're coming to?"
Says Mrs. Smith, says she.

"They're making laws at such a rate,
It almost drives me wild;
They do not care for God, I think,
For woman, man, or child.
They've forced the negroes in the cars
Along with you and me;
And who knows where they'll force them next?"
Says Mrs. Smith, says she.

"Their children are to go to school
Along with yours and mine,
And if we white folks should object,
Our rights we can resign.
All social lines must be removed
Because the blacks are free;
Such things are not to be endured,"
Says Mrs. Smith, says she.

"And not content with all these gifts,
Bestowed with lavish hand,
The negroes must be fed and clothed
Throughout the Southern land.
The taxes now are high enough,
But what they yet may be,
'Tis not in human power to guess,"
Says Mrs. Smith, says she.

Sunday Mercury.

THE BOOTH DIARY.

The diary found in possession of J. Wilkes Booth after his capture, has at last been made public. Stanton and Holt certify that it is the same as when it came into their possession. The diary is as follows:

"Ti Amo," April 13, 14, Friday, the Ides.—Until to-day nothing was ever thought of sacrificing to our country's wrongs. For six months we had worked to capture. But our cause being almost lost, something decisive and great must be done. But its failure was owing to others, who did not strike for their country with a heart.

I struck boldly, and not as the papers say. I walked with a firm step through a thousand of his friends, and was stopped, but pushed in. A colonel was at his side. I shouted "Sic Semper" before I fired. In jumping broke my leg. I passed all his pickets, rode sixty miles that night with the bone of my leg tearing the flesh at every jump. I can never repent it, though we hated to kill. Our country owed all her troubles to him, and God made me the instrument of his punishment.

The country is not, April, 1865, what it was. This forced union is not what I have loved. I care not what becomes of me; I have no desire to outlive my country. This night, "before the deed," I wrote a long article and left it for one of the editors of the National Intelligencer, in which I fully set forth our reasons for our proceedings. He, or the Government———.

Friday, 21st.—After being hunted like a dog, through swamps and woods, and last night being chased by gunboats till I was forced to return wet, cold and starving, with every man's hand against me, I am here in despair; and why? For doing what Brutus was honored for, what made Tell a hero; and yet I, for striking down a greater tyrant than they ever knew, am looked upon as a common cut-throat. My action was purer than either of theirs. One hoped to be great. The other had not only his country's but his own wrongs to avenge. I hoped for no gain. I knew no private wrong. I struck for my country, and that alone, a country that groaned beneath this tyranny, and prayed for this end, and yet now behold the cold hand they extend to me. God cannot pardon me if I have done wrong. Yet I cannot see my wrong except in serving my degenerate people. The little, the very little I leave behind to clear my name the Government will not allow to be printed—so ends all. For my country I have given up all that makes life sweet and holy, brought misery upon my family, and am sure there is no pardon in the heaven for me, since man condemns me so. I have only heard of what has been done, except what I did myself, and it fills me with horror.—God, try and forgive me, and bless my mother. To-night I will once more try the river with the intent to cross, though I have a greater desire and almost a mind to return to Washington, and in a measure, clear my name, which I feel I can do. I do not repent the blow I struck; I may before my God, but not to man. I think I have done well, though I am abandoned with the curse of Cain upon me, when, if the world knew my heart, that one blow would make me great, though I did desire no greatness. To-night I try to escape these bloodhounds once more. Who can read his fate? God's will be done. I have too great a soul to die like a criminal. Oh, may He spare me that, and let me die bravely! I bless the entire world; I have never hated or wronged any one. This last was not a wrong, unless God deems it so, and it's with Him to damn or bless me. And for this brave boy with me, who often prays; yes, before and since, with a true and sincere heart—was it crime in him? If so, why can he pray the same? I do not wish to shed a drop of blood, but I must fight the course. 'Tis all that's left me.

Upon a piece of paper found in the diary, and supposed to have been torn from it, is written the following:

My dear, [piece torn out] forgive me, but I have some little pride. I cannot blame you for want of hospitality. You know your own affairs. I was sick, tired, with a broken limb, and in need of medical advice. I would not have turned a dog from my door in such a plight. However, you were kind enough to give me something to eat, for which I not only thank you, but on account of the rebuke and manner in which to—[Piece torn out.] It is not the substance, but the way in which kindness is extended that makes me happy in the acceptance thereof. The sauce is meat in ceremony; meeting were bare without it. Be kind enough to accept the enclosed five dollars—although hard to spare for what we have received. Most respectfully, your obedient servant.

GREELY ON THE "LEAGUE."

It seems that Horace Greely has incurred the wrath of the New York "Loyal League" of which he is a member, for his action in becoming one of the bondmen of Jefferson Davis. In the New York Tribune of Thursday last, Mr. Greely published a reply, over his own signature, to the committee of the "League" who had cited him to appear before them and answer for his conduct. He first vindicates his consistency by republishing editorials written immediately after the close of the Rebellion, advocating "magnanimity in triumph," and also, a letter published last fall, in which he advocated "universal amnesty." He then assumes the offensive in the following trenchant style:

Gentlemen, I shall not attend your meeting this evening. I have an engagement out of town, and shall keep it. I do not recognize you as capable of judging, or even fully apprehending me. You evidently regard me as a weak sentimentalist, misled by a maudlin philosophy. I arraign you as narrow-minded blockheads, who would like to be useful to a great and good cause, but don't know how. Your attempt to base a great, enduring party on the hate and wrath necessarily engendered by a bloody civil war, is as though you should plant a colony on an iceberg which had somehow drifted into a tropical ocean. I tell you here, that out of a life earnestly devoted to the good of human kind, your children will select my going to Richmond and signing that bail-bond as the wisest act, and will feel that it did more for freedom and humanity than all of you were competent to do, though you had lived to the age of Methuselah.

I ask nothing of you, then, but that you proceed to your end by a direct, frank, manly way. Don't sidle off into a mild resolution of censure, but move the expulsion you proposed, and which I deserve, if I deserve any reproach whatever. All that I care for is, that you make this a square, stand-up fight, and record your judgment by yeas and nays. I care not how few vote with me, nor how many vote against me; for I know the latter will repent it in dust and ashes before three years have passed. Understand, once for all, that I dare you, and defy you, and that I propose to fight it out on the line that I have held since Lee's surrender. So long as any man was seeking to overthrow our government he was my enemy; from the hour in which he laid down his arms, he was my formerly erring countryman. So long as any is at heart opposed to the national unity, the Federal authority, or to that assertion of the equal rights of al men, which has become practically identified with loyalty and nationality, I shall do my best to deprive him of power; but, whenever he ceases to be this, I demand his restoration to all the privileges of American citizenship. I give you fair notice that I shall urge the re-enfranchisement of those now proscribed for rebellion so soon as I feel confident that this course is consistent with the freedom of the blacks and the unity of the Republic, and that I shall demand a recall of all now in exile only for participation in the Rebellion, whenever the country shall have been so thoroughly pacified that its safety will not thereby be endangered. And so, gentlemen, hoping that you will henceforth comprehend me somewhat better than you have done, I remain,

Yours, HORACE GREELY.

New York, May 23, 1867.

A BAD FOUNDATION.—The Pottsville Standard of Saturday last says, "on Friday of last week a large boarding house at Mahony planes, belonging to the Boston and Mahony Coal Company, which was built over a mine, suddenly sunk into the earth to a depth of seventy feet or more, by the caving in of the roof of the mine below. The occupants of the house saw the back building sinking, and made their escape. The cavity left in the earth is thirty or forty yards in diameter. The roof of the house has been reached by digging, and three hundred dollars in money and some of the furniture taken out through a hole made for the purpose. The building took fire from the upsetting of a stove, and it was found necessary to turn on a stream of water to extinguish the flames. Most of the furniture is badly broken, and the house is said to be a complete wreck."

—Mr. Youatt, the famous veterinary surgeon, who has been bitten eight or ten times by rabid animals, says that crystals of nitrate of silver, rubbed into the wound, will positively prevent hydrophobia in the bitten person or animal.

THE MOBILE RIOT.

A Plain, Unvarnished Account of its Origin.

A letter just recieved here from a prominent citzen traveling in the South, well known in political circles of the Northern States, dated at Mobile, May 15, gives probably one of the most correct accounts of the late riot in that city that has been prepared. It is brief and comprehensive, and carries npon its face the impress of truth. The whole story of the riot, from its inception to the end, is told in a few words. The writer says:

I write you from this branch of the "Lord's vineyard" to give you the plain truth as to the riot last night at this city.

While Judge Kelly was speaking a policeman was having a verbal altercation with a drunken fellow who was misbehaving, and seized him for arrest. The crowd immediately around was excited, but not noisy or violent. At this particular time the horses attached to the ambulance of Colonel Sheppard's Fifteenth infantry were frightened and started to run through the crowd. Of course every person tried to get out of the way; and rushing furiously in every direction pressed against others; and some person, believing it to be a riot, fired a pistol whereupon there was a general firing—some towards the speaker's stand and some from it. Kelly got under the table and then got away to the hotel, no one attempting to molest him. There was no person on the stand hurt. The only persons wounded and killed were opposed to the radicals, except one negro, who was found dead some distance from the scene. The whole affair sprang up in a moment. There were no preparations for it. The party mostly armed were the negroes. There is not a respectable man here who does not greatly regret the occurrence. Many, of course, do not like Kelley's radicalism, but there was no disposition to prevent his speaking or break up his meeting by any leading man here. I was at the meeting a while, and all all there seemed attentive and quiet.

Judg Kelly came very hastily to the Battle House, and a guard of soldiers were thrown about the house to guard him. He was taken to his meal by military, and seemed afraid to leave here for Montgomery in the regular steamer, having a special boat to carry him from this wharf. He was in no more danger than I was, and could walk the streets with just as much safety. He did not need military protection any more than I do, but he called upon the military for effect. It seemed more martyr like to need protection. It would create more sensation North. It was a trump-card. The whole affair will give Kelly more notoriety than all his other acts combined. I regret that the affair took place, because of the lives that were lost, because of the interruption of free speech, and because it does gross injustice to the people of Mobile.

HONOR THY PARENTS.—As a stranger went into the churchyard of a pretty village, he beheld three children at a new-made grave. A boy, about ten years of age, was busily engaged in placing plants of turf about it, while a girl, who appeared a year or two younger, held in her apron a few roots of wild flowers. The third child, still younger, was sitting on the grass, watching with thoughtful look the movements of the other two. The girl soon began planting some of her wild flowers around the head of the grave, when the stranger addressed them.

"Whose grave is this, children, about which you are so busily engaged?"

Mother's grave, sir," said the boy.

"And did your father send you to place these flowers around your mother's grave?"

"No, sir, father lies here too, and little Willie and sister Jane."

"When did they die?"

"Mother was buried a fortnight yesterday, sir, but father died last winter; they all lie here."

"Then who told you to do this?"

"Nobody, sir," replied the girl.

"Then, why do you do it?"

They appeared at a loss for an answer, but the stranger looked so kindly at them that at length the eldest replied, as the tears started in his eyes.

"Oh, we love them, sir?"

"Then you put these grass turfs and wild flowers where your parents lie because you love them?"

"Yes, sir," they all eagerly replied.

What can be more beautiful than such an exhibition as children honoring deceased parents? Never forget the dear parents who loved and cherished you in your infant days. Ever remember their parental kindness. Honor their memory by doing those things which you know would please them were they now alive, by a particular regard to their dying commands, and carry on plans of usefulness.

—If the Radical amendment to the Ohio Constitution succeeds at the next election, 4,000 negroes will be enfranchised and 24,000 white men will be disfranchised. Besides this the negroes will not be subject to military tax or duty, although admitted to equal rights with the whites. Such an amendment certainly should not pass.

A YANKEE lawyer who was pleading the cause of a little boy, took him up in his arms and held him up to the jury, suffused in tears. This had a great effect, until the opposite lawyer asked the boy, "What makes you cry?" "He's pinching me," said the boy.

A SMILE.—Oh, the strange witchery of a smile! Tell me where is there a heart so stubborn or so cold that it will not acknowledge the charm of a smile? I do not mean the fawning smile of flattery, the studied smile of falsehood, the chilling smile of scorn, the cutting smile of revenge, the bitter smile of selfish triumph, the frozen smile of haughty pride, or the mocking smile of hidden sorrow; but I mean that frank, truthful, soul-born smile that bursts like a radiant sunbeam over the countenance when once a human soul seeks the sympathy or communion of another. How purely beautiful or expressive the silent language! Words are but impudent mockery in its presence! How all-potent its powers! It bids the drooping spirits rise and soar upon the pinions of its own re-awakened melody; drives the lurking phantoms of doubt and jealousy from the clouded mind, and fills it with the cheering light of hope, and tells joy to sing again! Such a smile blessed memory brings me now. It rested on my pathway for one moment like heaven's choicest rays. The face from which it shone was a very plain one, yet at that moment it seemed an angel's. I never met another smile like that. Memory's loveliest treasures may fade—that one smile must ever retain its heaven-lighted beauty. Often when I turn brain-weary with the ceaseless toil of thought, or heart-sick of the world, its hollow homilies, its soulless mockery, or longing for one ray of youth, that one smile in all its pure beauty comes before me and bids me "be reconciled to human nature." There is character, too, in a smile. I care not what may be the countenance—let me see its natural smile, and I will tell you of the soul it reveals or masks. Every kind, truthful smile, is a ray lent us from the brightness of our spirit home, by which we may lighten the dark places or dispel the clouds which arise along the way of our fellow travelers. They cost nothing, and I would that in this world of weariness and mourning there might be many more such smiles.

CHEERFULNESS.—Dante places in his lowest hell those who in life were melancholy and pining without a cause, thus profaning and darkening God's blessed sunshine; and in some of the ancient Christian systems of virtues and vices, melancholy is unholy, and a vice; cheerfulness is holy, and a virtue. Lord Bacon also makes one of the characteristics of moral health and goodness to consist in "a constant quick sense of felicity, and a noble satisfaction." What moments, hours, days of exquisite felicity must Christ, our redeemer, have had, tho' it has become too customary to place him before us only in the attitude of pain and sorrow. Why should he be always crowned with thorns, bleeding with wounds, weeping over the world he was appointed to heal, to save, to reconcile with God? The radiant head of Christ in Raphael's Transfiguration should rather be our ideal of Him who came "to bind up the broken hearted, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

POWER OF A HORSE'S SCENT.—"There is one perception that a horse possesses, that but little attention has been paid to, and that is the power of scent. With some horses it is as acute as with the dog; and for the benefit of those that have to drive nights, such as physicians and others, this knowledge is valuable. I never knew it to fail, and I have ridden hundreds of miles dark nights; and in consideration of this power of scent this is my simple advice; never check your horse nights, but give him a free head, and you may rest assured that he will never get off the road, and will carry you expeditiously and safely. In regard to the power of scent in a horse, I once knew one of a pair that was stolen, and recovered mainly by the track being made out by his mate, and that after he had been absent six or eight hours."

A MANLY HUSBAND.—A reporter was around hunting a house for a friend and called to see a family who were preparing to vacate a cosy dwelling. As the door stood open the reporter walked in without knocking, and his eyes straightway lighted on the dame of the household who was making frantic lunges with the broomstick under the bed.

"Good morning madam. Ah! you have a troublesome cat under the bed."

"Troublesome cat? No sir! it's that snocking husband of miuc; and I'll have him out or break every bone in his body!',

"You will eh?" said a faint voice under the bed. "No, Susy, you may rave and pound, and pound and rave, but I'll be dogged if I'll come out from under this bed while I've got the spirit of a man about me!"

POINTS IN A GOOD MILKER.—A correspondent in the Country Gentleman says:—

"In selecting a milker, look well to the udder. Before milking it should be wide and broad, not hanging down like a sack; and hard and shiny, nearly destitute of hair, and what there is should be fine, short and bright. After milking, the udder should be soft, and apparently a skin bag. If after milking, the udder is hard and full, it shows that it is flesh, not milk, that distends it."

A BOY PREACHER IN WALES.—A boy preacher has appeared in Wales, who, according to his admirers, is to extinguish Mr. Spurgeon. This promising youth is Master Enoch Probert, who has just completed his eleventh year. On Easter Sunday he preached to a crowded congregation in the Baptist chapel at Gladestry, Radnor. A local print says of him: "He has a sweet and powerful voice, which he manages well. His delivery is remarkably distinct, and his hearers were astonished at such marvellous truths from a boy of such tender years." After preaching two sermons on the Sunday, Master Probert spoke at length on the following day to the Sunday scholars.

BACKS OUT.

In our issue of week before last, we proposed that if the Radicals of this Representative district would nominate but one candidate for member of the Legislature, we would agree that no Democratic candidate should be placed in nomination for Poor Director. We made this proposition in good faith, in order to soothe the anxiety of the Bedford Inquirer as well in regard to Poor House affairs as to the incorruptibility of the next Legislature. But our very liberal offer has been rejected, and it becomes the painful duty of the Democracy to elect one of their own number as Poor Director, which they will now do by a larger majority than ever was given before to any candidate for that office. The Inquirer has acknowledged, time and again, that the Legislature needs reformation. But it is unwilling to permit Democrats to be elected for that purpose. Now, then, if Radicals only are to reform the Legislature, let us see that none but Democrats are elected to reform affairs at the Poor House. The Inquirer seems to be afraid that if it were to assent to our proposition, we might be chosen by our party to represent this district in the Legislature. On that point we can only say, that Radicalism has made the title of "Member of the Legislature" synonymous with Thief and Robber, and we choose to keep clear of such company. Until the Augean stables at Harrisburg are cleaned, we prefer the "private station." Besides, legislative life has not the attractions for us that it is, doubtless, supposed to have by the "standing candidate" of the Inquirer, who "measures our oats in his own half bushel." To him we say that whenever we fall so low, politically, that we can't carry a single district for a party nomination, or fail to receive a half dozen votes at our own poll for such nomination, we hope at least to have sense enough left not to say or do anything which would bring us into comparison with men who have been the chosen standard-bearers of their party, when the fight raged hottest and thickest, and in victory as well as in defeat.

MEXICO.

The struggle between the Imperial and Liberal parties in Mexico, has ended in the overthrow of the former, Maximilian and his lieutenants having surrendered unconditionally to Escobedo, the commander of the Juarez forces. The downfall of the ill-starred emperor has been evident ever since the withdrawal of the French troops. The Liberal army began to increase in numbers and efficiency just as soon as the last French bayonet disappeared from Mexican soil. It had been scattered into insignificant guerrilla parties, formidable only to travelers and unprotected trains, but from this condition it rallied, gained a few small successes over the Imperialists, recruited, won some important victories and finally hemmed in its enemy at Queretaro, which, under the command of Maximilian in person, made a brave and desperate resistance, only to become at last, the scene of the denouement of the Franco-Austrian-Mexican empire. It is said that Juarez has determined that Maximilian and his officers shall be shot. The sympathy of Americans has been with the Liberals in their struggle to drive Maximilian from the country, but if the restoration of that party is to be signalized by so barbarous an act as the execution of the Imperial leaders, we hardly know whether even the vindication of the Monroe Doctrine will justify us in continuing our good wishes for the "Patriot President."—Let us hope that no such tragedy will wind up the Franco-Austrian farce in Mexico, but that humanity, order and peace will mark the rule of the restored President.

All the former deprecatory acts of the man are wiped out.—Inquirer.

In the name of all the lexicographers that ever lived, what do you mean by "deprecatory acts?"

A TASTE OF THEIR OWN MEDICINE.

We see by a telegraphic report, that Gen. Swayne, one of the sub-satraps under the Reconstruction Law, commanding the post of Mobile, Ala., has suppressed the publication of the National Republican, a Radical Negro organ, on the ground that it has uttered "incendiary" matter. The article complained of was one instructing the negroes "when and how to use firearms." Now, we are for the freedom of the press all the time, no matter what cause the publisher may advocate. We deprecate the course of Gen. Swayne in regard to this Radical sheet just as much as we condemned the conduct of Lincoln's administration in closing the offices of the N. Y. Daybook and other Democratic journals throughout the North. Doubtless, the Negro organ at Mobile exceeded the bounds of law; but, then, its publisher could have been punished according to law, without forcibly stopping his press. The Radical party are now getting a taste of their own medicine. We sincerely hope it may cleanse their stomachs of the bile which has made them the scourge of the country.

THE Inquirer calls us a "periphery" and a "rhomboid," intending thereby to describe our "roundness." The angular trapeziums of that newspaperial parallellogram, grope about in the thick darkness of their trigonometrical ignorance, for hard names for us, who simply deal with them on the square, and lose themselves in the intricate mazes of the science of geometry. These miserable editorial parallellopipedons ought to have known that everything round, no matter how large or how small, has a "periphery," and that a "rhomboid" means something with angles and crooked corners like themselves, and not roundness and fatness resulting from a good stomach and a clear conscience. Go to, ye small ends of an isosceles triangle!

When and how did the GAZETTE rejoice over "the release of Jeff. Davis?" Point us to the line or sentence in which our "jubilation" over that event is expressed, or be forever silent. We desire that Jefferson Davis shall be tried for Treason, by the proper civil court and by a jury of his countrymen fairly and lawfully empaneled. We want to know what constitutes Treason in this country, or whether there is any such crime as Treason. If Mr. Davis is not tried, we shall be greatly disappointed. Has the Inquirer ever demanded his trial? Has that sheet ever urged upon Judge Chase and the Radical U. S. District Attorney for Virginia, the importance of having a judicial disposition of the case of Jefferson Davis? Never once!

When had the Republicans the control of this county?—Inquirer.

During three years of the time of Mr. Blymyer as Treasurer, the "Republicans" had a majority in the Board of Poor Directors, in the persons of Messrs. Shuck and Trout, and during those years mistakes to the amount of about $3,000 occurred. During that time the whole Poor House machine, Director, Treasurer, Steward, Clerk and all, were under the control of the "Republicans." And it is for these $3,000 of "Republican" mistakes that the Democrats, according to the Inquirer, are to be held responsible. A pretty way of getting rid of an unpleasant responsibility, truly!

Our friend across the corner is "going" for Horace Greely most lovingly. —Inquirer.

Not so fast, Bro. Lutz! We think Horace Greely one of the most dangerous men, because one of the shrewdest, in your party. He became surety for Jefferson Davis, because he hopes by so doing to make friends for his party, among the white people of the South. Of course, "narrow-minded blockheads" can't see the drift of Horace's magnanimity.

Our neighbor intimates that we have been in the substitute business. Not that we know of. We can confidently say that we never put in a substitute. Can our neighbor say as much?—Inquirer.

You meant to say, "Can our neighbor say as little?" No! most emphatically, not! We did put in a substitute, although never drafted. You pleaded "varicose veins," and "near-sighted ness," and one could always tell when a draft was to be made, by Bro. Lutz' gait.

BLOCKHEADS vs. COPPERHEADS.

Horace Greely having dubbed those people who disapprove his course in bailing Jeff. Davis, "narrow-minded blockheads," it is at last settled what is to be the generic title of the pie-bald and mongrel opposition to the Democratic party. "The Blockheads" will sound very well as a set-off to "Copperheads."

WE have received from the publisher, Rev. S. W. Thomas, 1018 Arch street, a little book, entitled "The Teacher, His Studies, The Treatment of His Class, and How to Produce Impressions upon the Hearts and Consciences of the Young. By W. S. Blacket. The book comes to us recommended by Mr. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia.

THE NURSERY, A Monthly Magazine for youngest readers, by Fanny P. Seaverns, Boston, Mass. Published by John L. Shorey, 13 Washington Street, Boston, Mass. Terms, $1.50 a year in advance; 15 cents a single number.

This little magazine for small children is decidedly the best of the sort we have ever seen. It should go into every household where children are learning to read. It is gratifying to see how delighted the little ones are when they receive what they call "my magazine." To examine "The Nursery" is to subscribe for it.

A COON CHASE.—It was a novel sight truly, to see Thos. F. Zeigler, John M. Dixson and James Doyle, three Broad Toppers, crossing the field of Mr. John Crain in hot pursuit of a coon. Zeigler and Dixon led the hunt. Doyle ran well too, but a good way behind. The coon being too close pursued took refuge in an old barn, climbed to the roof and strange to relate, was brought down in Davy Crocket style, without injury to either captors or coon. His coonship is now domiciled in a small habitation at the residence of Mr. Crain, prepared by the parties who captured an old coon without the assistance of dogs. S. Brooks, Esq., and R. Divelbliss were the delighted witnesses of the chase.—Hunt. Monitor.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—A daring highway robbery was perpetrated upon George W. Kuhns, a resident of this place, while in a buggy on the road leading to Glatz's Ferry, in Hellam township. The affair occurred on Sunday of last week. As Mr. Kuhns was driving along, he was asked by John Wolf, a citizen of Hellam township, for a seat in his buggy. Mr. Kuhns consented. Shortly afterwards he attempted to take something from Mr. Kuhns' pocket, whereupon a scuffle ensued between them. About this time three men, strangers, came to the assistance of Wolf, when Mr. Kuhns finding resistance against so many, useless, ran off to the nearest house. As soon as he was able to procure some assistance, he returned and found his horse, coat, and buggy where he had left them in the road. His pocket book, containing a small sum of money, was taken. The robbery was one of the most daring and reckless on record, and we hope, for the sake of travellers that the perpetrators may be apprehended and punished, as an example to others who feel disposed to commit similar outrages.—York Gazette.

DARING ROBBERY.—On Friday morning last, between three and four o'clock, a safe in the drug store of John Read, of this place, was blown open with powder, by burglars. The thieves entered the store by a back window, and finding the safe behind the counter, had drawn it out to the centre of the room, and placed powder in the key-hole. It is thought the safe exploded about the time the trains were passing, the sound of which deadened the report. Money to the amount of about $100 is thought to have been taken from it. The safe was completely bursted, which revealed the fact that it was a very unsafe affair at best, being bound with thin sheet iron lined with boards, and filled in with clay of a common kind. The thieves have not been arrested, and we would caution our people to beware of a repetition of such outrages, and advise them to leave as little money in their safes as possible.—Hunt. Globe.

COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—Kennedy's Bank Review for May cautions the public against recieving the new and dangerous imitations of the $2 bills of the National Bank. They are gotten up in a style well calculated to deceive. The following marks of distinction may assist in detecting these bills: In the first place the signatures of both President and Cashier are printed, while in all genuine bills the names are invariably written. The letters "t" and "s" in the title "Pres't," in the original are separated by the apostrophe. In the counterfeit the near figure of the two females, sitting in the lower right is almost invisible; in the genuine it is very clear and distinct. The back of the bill is still more bunglingly made than the front. The green is pale and poor, and in the true bill no letters along the top touch on the green border, while in the spurious the words are partly printed on the green entirely across. The picture plate is too large for the green border.

The Negro Riot in Danville, Va.—The United States Burial Corps Attacked and Driven from their Works—The "Loyal Colored Men" on the Rampage.

[From the Richmond Examiner, May 30.]

On Monday afternoon last a party of sixty colored men, belonging to the burial corps, stationed near Danville, went into the town for the avowed purpose of "setting the town to rights." Shortly after getting into the corporation, they met with a white citizen, with whom they got into an altercation; very high words ensued, and threats of bodily violence were made towards him. About this time a colored man (living in Danville) came up, and took up the quarrel of the white man. He was quickly reinforced by colored men, and quite a large number of them gathered on the ground. A melee ensued, pistols, stones, bricks, and other missiles were freely used on both sides. After a stubborn fight, the burial corps negroes were driven out of town, into their camp. Three or four of them were wounded quite seriously. Two of the resident negroes of Danville received wounds, but not of a serious character. The negroes connected with the burial corps were employed during the war, and since, for a short time, in guarding confederate prisoners, and have been very turbulent and disorderly since they have been in Danville, and have been frequently engaged in disturbances with the colored people of the town. During the riot on Monday, Captain Taylor, of the burial corps, was very energetic in his efforts to suppress it, and was promptly and efficiently seconded by the police force of the town. Everything that could be done by the authorities, military and civil, to stop it, was done, but without success, until the burial corps negroes were driven out of the town to their camp.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Incendiary Radical Sheet Suppressed.

MOBILE, May 31.—Yesterday's edition of the National Republican newspaper published in this city, has been suppressed by order of the military commandant of this post, a guard placed over the office, and the future publication of the paper prohibited until the proof sheets have been submitted to the commandant.

The commandant in his order suppressing the paper says:

The paper is rendered amenable to the last paragraph of general order of May 19, prohibiting the publication of articles inciting to riot and violence, or the public use of incendiary language.

The article referred to was instructing the freedmen when, where and how to use firearms.

SUPREME JUDGE.—Since it has been understood that Judge Chapman of Bucks, positively refuses the use of his name in connection with the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, public sentiment of the democracy of this county has been gradually inclining towards Judge Sharswood of Philadelphia. Judge S. ranks deservedly among the ablest jurists not only of this State but of the whole country. His integrity as a man, is above suspicion; and the ability, and impartiality which have characterized his conduct as one of the Judges of the District Court of Philadelphia, have secured for him the respect and confidence of men of all parties in that city. There is probably, no man in the State, better fitted in all essential qualifications, than Judge S. to succeed Judge Woodward on the Supreme bench.—West Chester Jeffersonian.

GOING TO SCHOOL.—What cheerful crowds pass along the streets every morning for the school room! What clever little chit-chat is indulged in! What great burdens of books are carried! We have often wondered where all this rising generation will go and what they will do. Now they are as merry as the butterflies that sail in the sunshine. But they will see troubles and trials. Happy for them that they cannot see down the vista of their future lives.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. CONSUMPTION CURABLE BY DR SCHENCK'S MEDICINES.—To cure consumption, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. Schenck's Mandrake Pills cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucous accumulations; and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action.—Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhœa they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold. Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, eat all the richest food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well. 2d w

ADVERTISE.—Greely says the man who pays more for shop rent than for advertising don't know his business.

E. M. ALSIP, Esq. of Bedford, bagged 360 trout the other day. So says the Inquirer. Bagging trout must be rare sport, indeed.—Hol. Standard.

A PORTION of metal composing the bell of the new Lutheran church at Johnstown, is said to have been taken from the famous rebel ram "Merrimac."

PISCATORIAL.—Our young friend Lewis Saupp is a very successful fisherman. A few days ago he captured a large lot of eels and "fall fish," a nice string of which was presented to ye editor. Vive le Lewis!

QUITE REFRESHING, these hot summer days, to be clothed in a linen suit, with a covering of a No. 1 straw hat, all from the fashionable store of Berkstresser & Co., Julianna street. They keep the best hats and clothing in town.

A COLD WET SUMMER.—French scientific men predict the summer of 1867 will be cold and wet like that of last year. They base the prediction on the fact that immense masses of ice have broken, or are about to break away from the extreme North, producing cold vapor. The weather of the past few days would not seem to indicate a verification of this singular prediction.

J. L. LEWIS, who has been absent from town for several days, has returned and opened at his Drug and Stationery store, a pure stock of drugs and chemicals; a fine assortment of perfumery, toilet and fancy articles, fine stationery, Whitman's superb confections, &c. He has also the finest lamp chimneys we have ever seen. Call and examine.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Executive Committee of the Bedford County Agricultural Society, met at the Court House, on Tuesday last, and organized by the appointment of Hon. G. W. Gump as President pro tem., and I. D. Earnest as Secretary pro tem. After considerable discussion of various subjects, Hon. S. L. Russell was elected permanent President and J. W. Dickerson, Esq., Secretary. The Committee then adjourned to meet at the call of the President of the Society.

The Democratic District Attorney of Bedford county has absconded, taking with him a large sum of money belonging to soldiers' widows and others.—Johnstown Tribune.

Rev. Sereno Howe, pastor of a church of the Radical dispensation, and a prominent Radical member of the Massachusetts Legislature, has absconded, taking with him a large sum of virtue and reputation of the female members of his flock, including the little girls, daughters of soldiers' widows and others. Now who's ahead, the Democratic District Attorney or the Reverend Radical Legislator?—Johnstown Democrat.

HYDROPHOBIA.—Now that the "heated term" is near at hand, and an occasional mad dog may be expected, the following cure for hydrophobia will be apropos. A gentleman furnishes it to the National Intelligencer, and vouches for its efficacy: "Spirits of hartshorn is a certain remedy for the bite of a mad dog. The wound should be bathed constantly with it, and three or four doses, diluted, taken inwardly during the day. The hartshorn decomposes chemically the virus insinuated into the wound, and immediately alters and destroys its deleteriousness."

HOME PAPERS.—Recollect if a home weekly paper is to be supported, home influence must do it. Every dollar sent to an eastern paper is at the expense of the local journal. A county acquires prominence through its papers more than in any other way, and to every one who has an interest in his county at heart, his home paper is a necessity. Never will such a man take a paper from home until he is able to take a second paper. His first paper will be his home sheet and he will so identify his own interest with that of his county paper, as to consider his subscription as much a matter of yearly duty as payment of his taxes.

MORE ABOUT GOLD.—There seems to be a considerable excitement manifested in this neighborhood, in consequence of gold having been discovered in the Blue Hills, situated in the lower end of Germany Valley. The indications were first observed by Mr. C. V. Trew some time ago, on the property of Mr. Boody. Since then the same quartz has been discovered elsewhere in the neighborhood. The ores have been analyzed by three assayants in New York, and each reports it to contain gold to the value of from thirteen to sixteen dollars a ton. We understand that parties are about leasing the lands on which the discoveries have been made, and intend shortly to commence operations.—Mt. Union Times.

DISGUSTING.—Our neighbors across the corner "break in upon" the corner loafers in the following startling paragraph:

"We this week publish, in another column, under the head of "How a Loafer was Rebuked," a few pregnant lines. There is another class of "platter-brains" who are equally culpable. We mean that class who stand on the street corners and in the office-doors and observe every lady passer by. The moment they see a lady enter a place of business they post off at once, and break in upon her, when, in all probability, she desires to transact business of a nature that she does not wish all the world to know, and especially the ungentlemanly intruder who thus breaks in upon her. We have seen so much of this that we are disgusted with it."

The subscribers to the Inquirer should keep close watch upon the paper containing those "pregnant lines." When the period of gestation terminates, they may have a house full of lines. If there be any "platter-brains" in their families they will not want the "lines," or anything else "equally culpable." We agree with the Inquirer that it is enough to disgust any one to see the "platter-brainses" "break in upon" a lady, "when, in all probability, she desires to transact business of a nature that she does not wish all the world to know," &c.

THE GOLD AND SILVER EXCITEMENT.—We have received a specimen of the gold ore discovered in the lower end of the county, which has been creating such a sensation. It is now on exhibition at this office, where it can be seen by the curious or the interested. We are informed on what seems to be good authority that the ore (same as that in our possession) has been tested by scientific men of Philadelphia and has been pronounced by them to contain gold beyond doubt, and in good paying quantities. We have sent specimens of the ore to various places (New York among the rest) in order that it may be subjected to the closest examination and feel assured that ere long we will be able to remove all doubt about the genuineness of our precious mineral discoveries.—The geological complexion of Fulton county bears a striking similarity to that of all the gold-and-silver-bearing regions we have ever read descriptions of.

We clip the above from the Fulton Democrat, of last week. Little Fulton is certainly progressive. In the first place she has handsomely increased her Democratic majority, secondly, gold and silver are being discovered within her borders; and lastly, a movement is in progress to construct a railroad for the shipment of the precious metals to Philadelphia for coinage. To all of which we say, bully for Fulton!

CAPT. H. D. WOODRUFF, editor of the Johnstown Democrat, is the Delegate from Cambria county to the June Democratic State Convention.

MEETING OF CLASSIS.—The Mercersburg Classis of the German Reformed Church, convened at Pattonsville, Bedford Co. Pa., on the evening of the 17th inst. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. H. Heckerman of Bedford. Rev. Walter E. Krebs of Waynesboro, was elected President.—Saturday was taken up chiefly by the reading of parochial reports. From these it was manifest that the ministers within the bounds of this Classis are active in their work, and that their congregations, generally, are in a good condition. During the past year several new charges were formed, and at the present meeting, permission was granted for the organization of three new congregations.

Three students, who had just graduated at the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, were examined and licensed, and two of them were ordained to the holy ministry and appointed to Missionary fields in Iowa.—Several young men about commencing their studies for the ministry were taken under the care of Classis. The Classis would cheerfully assist in supporting still more, as there is a great want of ministers throughout the Church. Large fields are being divided, new congregations are organized, but many of them are vacant and are anxiously waiting for some one to come and preach the Gospel and break unto them the bread of life.

The pastoral relationship existing between Rev. D. W. Gerhard and the McConnellsburg charge was dissolved and Mr. Gerhard was dismissed to the Lancaster Classis in whose bounds he expects to labor. A committee, consisting of Rev. I. G. Brown, Prof. E. E. Higbee and Rev. J. B. Kershner, was appointed to supply the McConnellsburg charge and assist the members in securing another pastor. The committee expect to have services in the church in McConnellsburg, in two weeks from next Sunday, the 16th of June, at 10 A. M.

The above is furnished by a writer in the last week's Fulton Republican. Whenever we want any local news we are compelled to go away from home to obtain it. Our people don't appear to be troubled, to any alarming extent, with the cacoethes scribendi.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The seventh annual Sunday School Convention, of the Juniata District, East Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, met at Bloody Run, Bedford County, on Tuesday, May 28th, 1867.

The Rev. Thos. Barnhart, Presiding Elder of the District, President; and Rev. J. D. Stewart of Tyrone, and J. H. Ross of McVeytown, Secretaries.

The number of ministers in attendance was about twenty-five, and sixty representatives, besides a few visiting Clergy, and a number of Sunday School workers.

The Convention held sessions on Tuesday, afternoon and evening, and on Wednesday morning, afternoon and evening; closing its meeting at about 10 o'clock, P. M.

The attendance at the meeting was good, and interesting and profitable to all present, and considered in many respects the best and most religious Convention as yet held in the District. All earnest workers in the Sunday school cause, were invited to take part in the discussions and exercises of the Convention.

Quite an interesting discussion arose in regard to policy and benefit of holding at some future time in this District, a Sunday School Institute. The matter was finally disposed of by placing the matter in the hands of Bro. Barnhart, who was directed by Convention, to make all needful arrangements if services of Rev. J. H. Vincent could be obtained.

The Children's meeting, on Wednesday morning, was very interesting. Addresses were made by Rev. D. S. Monroe, Rev. W. Gwynn, Rev. R. E. Wilson, and Rev. J. P. Moore, accompanied with singing by school: "Where do you journey my brother," "The Shining Way," "Climbing up Zion's Hill," "Beautiful River," and "Nearer my Home."

The annual Sermon before the Convention, was preached on Tuesday evening, by Rev. George Warren, of Birmingham Circuit. The sermon was able, forcible, practical and beneficial to all.

A number of topics were brought by the committee, before the Convention, and created quite an interesting debate and discussion.

Quite a number of interesting remarks were made on the Temperance question. The following resolution was offered and passed:

Resolved, That it is the duty of S. S. Officers and Teachers, to impress the principles of Temperance upon the minds of the children committed to th ir care.

The following questions were also discussed: "Sunday School Normal Schools," "Duty of preachers to Sunday Schools," "How to open and close Sunday Schools," "Adult Bible Classes," "On the management of Infant classes," "How to secure attention, the affections, and conversion of Sunday School scholars."

The following resolutions on the above, and other topics, were offered and passed:

Resolved, That the best plan to raise missionary money, is the plan set forth in the Discipline, by organizing our schools into Missionary Societies.

Resolved, That there should be, (as far as practicable,) a Normal class in connection with each of our schools, and all S. S. Superintendents and Teachers should be members of the same.

Resolved, That we hold our next Sunday School Convention in Huntingdon, on the last Tuesday in May, 1868 at 1 o'clock, P. M., and close on Wednesday night.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention are due, and are hereby tendered to the families of this place, for their generous and unsurpassed hospitality to delegates and visitors. Also to P. C. R. & Huntingdon & Broad Top R. R. Companies, for return tickets over their respective roads.

Business Committee were directed to insert in programme, for next year's Convention, the following item, 2d day at 2 o'clock, P. M, "Rehearsals of the practical effects of sabbath school instruction."

Resolved, That the first Sabbath of August, 1867, be set apart in all our Churches, as a special day of thankigiving and prayer to Almighty God for conversion of all the children in our Sabath Schools.

A vote of thanks was returned to Bros. Furguson and Masters and the good Sisters for kind attentions. A vote of thanks was tendered to the President and Secretaries for their fathful services. J. D. S.

Whom will the Shoe Fit?

"Woodberry, May 7th, 1867 Sir: I want you to quit talking about me and coming up here to run opposition against me, and all this kind of thing, or I will put the law in force on you."

The above epistle came to hand, in the vicinity of Woodberry, from the hand of something in the shape of a man, who professes to be a singing master, and who says, he can read music as well as anybody else. Just think! Men who don't understand simple melody pretend to instruct in vocal music, talk Thorough Bass on the street corners, and get some innocent little boy, to ask a few simple questions. For my part, I think this is sufficient to make the brains of an honest Musician reel, or compel a tadpole to climb a five barred rail fence to get out of their way. O ye jealous hearted improperly so-called professors, why not face the Music yourselves?

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND
J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.
The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!
To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for
J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.
CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—if none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.
For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

ASTROLOGY.
The World Astonished
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives your name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secresy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.
Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.
REPARATOR CAPILLI
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, provided entire satisfaction is not given. Publications.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political, agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.
